

We eliminate the hassles of switching housing providers.

“Switching sounds like work.”

We'll make your transition smooth as silk. Our specialized Implementation Team takes the time to get familiar with your event and your staff. Then we create and manage a launch plan with timelines, deliverables and responsibilities.

“My staff is already too busy.”

No worries. Our team pitches in to function as your full-service housing department. They'll help you get up to speed on our timesaving tech tools and can coordinate with exhibitors, hotels and your registration provider.

“I can't reopen hotel negotiations.”

There's no need to start over. Travel Planners can administer your contracts “as is.” We'll also work closely with you to handle any minor modifications that the changeover entails.

“I can't afford to upset my VIPs.”

We'll take a personal, proactive approach and introduce ourselves to your most important constituents. Our dedicated group specialists are experienced hand-holders, problem-solvers and diplomats.

“I'm worried it will cost too much.”

Travel Planners will deliver all the benefits of your Master Plan at no added cost. If you do incur administrative expenses, we'll help you address the issue so that switching makes financial sense.

“Our old provider's name is everywhere.”

Your Travel Planners team will help you promote the change to everybody. Our complete marketing package will be adapted to your needs at no cost.

“I take a risk if I push for change.”

We appreciate that your reputation and credibility may be at stake when you advocate for a new housing provider. You can count on Travel Planners to support you in every way to gain the approval of all decision-makers in your organization.
